

Book Pumpkins

1.Remove the cover of your book & draw the shape of your pumpkin.

6. Pull the pages apart to "fluff" & use glue to where needed to hold in place.

2. Cut out the shape of your pumpkin.You will have to do this sections at a time.

7. Add some colour if you wish. Spray paint is available up the back of room.

An interpretive essay and accounts of Shaks life and theater form an instructive preface to play.

Louis B. Wright, General Editor, was the Direct of the Folger Shakesener Library from 1948 untuhis reitement in 1968. He is the author of Middle-Class Culture in Elizabethan England, Refgion and Empire, Shakespeare for Everyman, and many other books and essays on the history and literature of the Tudor and Stuart periods.

Virginia Lamar, Assistant Editor, served as receared sistant to the Director and Executive Secretary of the Folger Shakespeare Library from 1946 until here eath in 1968. She is the author of English Deels in e Age of Shakespeare and Travel and Roads in ugland, and coeditor of William Strachey's Historie Travell into Virginia Britania. 3. Keep cutting until you have all the pages done.

8. Add your stem using a glue gun to secure in place.

4. Fold the spine in half and hot glue the ends together.

9. Tie a ribbon around your stem & it is complete!

5. When you stand it up, it should look something like this.

Make sure to tag us in your photos!

@hwb_insta